

Suren G. Dutia <sup>[1]</sup> is a passionate advocate for entrepreneurship and currently serves as Senior Fellow of the Kauffman Foundation and the Skandalaris Center for Entrepreneurial Studies, Washington University in St. Louis. From February 2006 to May 2010, Suren served as the Chief Executive Officer of TiE Global based in Silicon Valley. With 61 chapters in 17 countries, TiE<sup>[2]</sup> is one of the largest non-profit organizations involved in fostering entrepreneurship globally. Suren founded the San Diego chapter of TiE in 2000 and served as its President for three years. Suren also serves on the Advisory Board of the Center for Digital Transformation, University of California, Irvine.

Suren is an executive with extensive and successful multi-industry leadership experience. As an angel investor, Suren has invested in a number of business ventures and is currently serving on the Board of Directors of three entrepreneurial ventures. Suren has been involved in corporate management since 1981 and served as President and CEO of Xscribe Corporation, a publicly traded company in San Diego for over 10 years, involved in developing, manufacturing and marketing litigation support software, computer-aided-transcription systems, and high performance scanners. Xscribe Corporation also pioneered real-time closed-captioning technology. In addition, Suren held number of leadership positions with Boston-based Dynatech Corporation for 7 years, including 5-years as President of a medical instruments company and subsequently overseeing the management of 4 subsidiaries.

Prior to working in the private sector, Suren spent 10 years in the non-profit and public sectors - three (3) years as Deputy Director of the Community Action Agency (War on Poverty), six (6) years as Executive Director for a human services agency created by a consortium of twelve local governments and one year in the U. S. Department of Education in the Carter Administration.

Suren has a B.S. and M.S. degrees in Chemical Engineering and B.A. in Political Science from Washington University in St. Louis, and holds an MBA degree from the University of Dallas in Irving, Texas