

SHIVBIR S. GREWAL

Shiv Grewal is the co-founder and Managing Member of Auctus Global Capital Group. A senior executive and dealmaker with over 30 years of US and cross border experience, Shiv is known for negotiating some of the most prominent cross border life science, technology, clean tech and financial services transactions on the west coast. He also represents several venture funds who seek to invest in new and existing companies in the US and throughout Asia.

Shiv was a senior corporate partner with the law firm of Stradling Yocca Carlson & Rauth and a member of the firm's Executive Management Committee and its Board of Directors. His practice focused on representing emerging growth, technology, life science, consumer product and clean technology entities. Shiv specialized in corporate and securities law; including public company transactions and financings, venture capital financings, M&A transactions, initial public offerings and joint ventures. He practiced law in India before relocating to the United States and also advises U.S. business entities on investments in India, as well as Indian entities on acquisitions in the U.S. as well as on raising capital in the U.S. markets.

Shiv is the author of various articles and publications on U.S. and on Indian law. In addition, he has chaired various panels and has spoken at various seminars on corporate finance issues, venture capital, mergers and acquisitions, as well as on U.S. and Indian law.

Shiv was a co-founder HealthScribe, Inc. which was one of the first U.S. companies to source medical transcriptions from India. He was also a co-founder of FirstRing, Inc., one of India's first independent call centers.

Shiv is the past President of TiE Southern California and was the Chair of the Governance Committee of the TiE Global Board of Trustees. He is also a member of the UCI Chief Executive Roundtable, the Board of Counselors at the Chapman University School of Business, and is a member of the Board of Directors of OCTANe.

Shiv sits on the Board of Directors, and is a member of the board of advisors, of various companies. He was named one of Southern California's Super Lawyers by the Los Angeles Magazine.